

WEDDING.

VEITCH—MINCHIN.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnised at "Pent Lyn," Balkuling, the residence of Mr J. A. Minchin, on March 26th, between Miss Margaret E. (Nellie), third daughter of Mr and Mrs J. A. Minchin, late of Middle Swan, and Mr A. Veitch, late of Bishop Auckland, England. The room in which the marriage took place was prettily decorated, and in the centre of the room an arch, composed of greenery and white flowers, was erected, under which the bridal party stood during the ceremony. Canon Groser officiated, and as the bride entered the room on her father's arm, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" was sung. The bride wore a dainty dress of white embroidered muslin, with the usual veil and wreath of orange blossom. She was attended by her sister, Miss Maud Minchin, who looked well in a dress of pale pink, and her little niece, Miss Daphne Doig, who wore a dainty little frock of cream, with touches of pale blue. Mr T. Dennison Veitch (brother of bridegroom) acted as best man. In the evening Mr and Mrs Veitch drove to Beverley and caught the midnight express to Albany, where the honeymoon was spent. Mrs Veitch travelled in a pretty grey dress trimmed with emerald green buttons and a hat to match.
